Superintendent Announces Retirement

At the Board of Trustees' March 30th, Regular Meeting of the Board, Superintendent David Keohane announced his retirement as Superintendent with Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools. Mr. Keohane's retirement caps a 37 year service to Catholic education, where he has served as teacher, consultant, vice-principal, principal, deputy superintendent, and chief superintendent. He has served as a chief superintendent provincially for 19 years in three jurisdictions and will be completing 11 years of Service with Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools.

"I am most appreciative of the confidence that the Board has placed in me in supporting my work for the School Division. I have been honored on a daily basis to have witnessed the dedicated and talented contributions of our division, principal, teacher, and support staff leaders who make a positive difference in our students' lives," states Superintendent Keohane. Board Chair Becigneul adds, "Mr. Keohane has been a critical leadership component in furthering the vision and goals of our Division. His recognition on provincial, national, and international levels has clearly indicated why our division is a 'lighthouse jurisdiction' for so many."

David will be bringing his service as Superintendent to an end upon the conclusion of the current school year. The Board expects to address succession planning needs over the next few weeks.
