NEWS RELEASE

GREATER ST. ALBERT CATHOLIC SCHOOL TRUSTEES RE-ELECT BOARD CHAIR

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 31, 2011 (St. Albert, Morinville, Legal) - Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools hosted their Organizational Meeting for the Board this past week where returning trustees began their planning work for the upcoming school year, including election of the Board Chair and Vice-Chair for the 2011 – 2012 school year.

David Keohane, Superintendent, is pleased to announce that Lauri-Ann Turnbull will serve as this year's Board Chair and Rosaleen McEvoy will continue in her role as Vice-Chair. Lauri-Ann, Board Chair commented "I'm honored to be re-elected by my peers. It's a privilege to have served as Chair this past year acknowledging the role is an important one for the division. We are blessed with a dedicated group of trustees who are passionate about education and all the work that is being done in Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools to ensure that our students receive a high quality education."

To advance the boards work on its advocacy plan, it will be adding additional public meetings this year to be responsive to decisions that need to be made in a timely manner to enhance student learning. The board will also be active this coming year on 15 external committees all dedicated to furthering the boards support for strong public engagement. The work of the board is handled by 7 trustees representing the 17 schools in the division. This includes four trustees in St. Albert, two in Morinville and one in Legal. They are:

St. Albert: Dave Caron, Joan Crockett, Jacquie Hansen, Rosaleen McEvoy (Vice-Chair)

Legal: Cathy Proulx

Morinville: Noreen Radford, Lauri-Ann Turnbull (Chair)
