

District Celebrates Gallup Great Workplace Award for the Third Consecutive Year! [April 3, 2019 St. Albert, AB]

Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools is proud to announce that it has received the Gallup Great Workplace Award for a third straight year. This international award of excellence was created to recognize organizations for their extraordinary ability to create engaged workplace cultures that drive business outcomes.

Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools joins a prestigious group of organizations that have built successful brands and workplaces based on their ability to engage their workforce. The district is among a list of global leaders in the healthcare, education and manufacturing sectors with many organizations as repeat winners.

Superintendent Keohane commented, "Our intentional focus on employee engagement contributes to student success and it is not coincidental that the District ranks in the province, as one of the best! We know that when our employees are thriving and supported in the workplace, the engagement of students and their learning in the classroom increases. Celebrating for the third consecutive year affirms the power of staff continually exploring ways to make engagement more meaningful in our schools. When this happens, the true winners are our students. This result confirms for our communities that we are blessed to have outstanding staff. Clearly, Gallup would suggest our staff are among the best in the world!"

Gallup studies workplace cultures around the world. Their research demonstrates that engaged employees naturally find ways to excel and are genuinely passionate about their work. They consistently generate creativity, innovation and growth, paving the path to excellence.
