
PUBLIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE (WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION)

Background Statement

The mission of Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools depends on all who work on behalf of children to learn, live fully, and serve others. Division employees are encouraged to act in ways consistent with the teachings of the Catholic faith. The Board of Trustees of Greater St. Albert Catholic Schools (“Board”) is dedicated to the highest standard of ethical and accountable conduct, and recognizes the importance of working to deter and detect wrongdoing within the operations of the school division, and to promote public confidence in the administration of the Board. To ensure this, the Board is committed to maintaining a positive and supportive environment whereby employees can disclose potential wrongdoing, or seek advice about disclosing a potential wrongdoing, without reprisal, and are provided with clear guidance for how those disclosures may take place. Employees have a duty to report all wrongdoings or suspected wrongdoings to the Chief Officer or Designate.

On June 1, 2013, the Public Interest Disclosure (Whistleblower Protection) Act (“PIDA”) came into force in Alberta with amendments proclaimed March 1, 2018. The purpose of PIDA is to:

- facilitate the disclosure and investigation of significant and serious matters in public entities, including school boards, that an employee believes may be unlawful, dangerous to the public, or injurious to the public interest;
- protect employees who make those disclosures;
- manage, investigate and make recommendations respecting disclosures of wrongdoings and reprisals; and
- promote public confidence in the administration of public entities.

Under PIDA, no person may make reprisals against an employee for making a disclosure, seeking advice about making a disclosure, or taking any steps under PIDA, so long as the employee is acting in good faith.
